Reflections

Doug Faulkner

Happy New Year

New year, a time of new beginnings. A time to look back and count the resolutions that we broke. Also, a time to look forward and make plans.

I prefer the setting of goals instead of making resolutions. Once a resolution is broken; we have a tenancy to stop trying. We let Satan tell us that he has failed and don't need to keep trying. Once a resolution is broken, it is gone for the year. Setting goals gives us something to strive to attain. I will share some of my goals with you. I pray that these may help you set some goals.

To grow in my relationship with Jesus

To grow in my relationship with my family

To spend more time in personal devotion, Bible study and prayer.

To be more faithful in my Church attendance.

To grow in generosity in my giving.

I may not reach all these goals 100 per cent. But I can assure you I will have grown as a Christian from trying and God will bless the effort.

Wishing you a New Year that sees growth in your walk with Jesus. If you don't know Jesus, call the Church office at 601-737-8331. We have many strong Christians ready to introduce you to Jesus.
