Reflections

Doug Faulkner

The Greatest Love Story Ever Told, past, present and future.

“For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son. That whosoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16

Probably the most known and memorized verse in the Bible. If we believe in the Trinity and we do. We believe Jesus, God and Holy Spirit are one yet three (3) separate persons. This fact tells us so much about God’s love for us. This fact makes what God did for us that much more amazing,

It was not my sins or yours that nailed Jesus to that old rugged cross. The Trinity, God, Jesus, and Holy Spirit could have just as easily said let man have his just desserts and hell would be our eternal home. It was the amazing, awesome love of God that led Jesus to the cross and His love for us that kept him there. Romans 5:8 tells us “But God proves His own love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Mark 15:34 tells us that from the cross Jesus quoted Psalms 22:1 “My God, my God why have You forsaken me?” God had not forsaken David or Jesus. Sin made Him feel separated and alone. The same as you and I feel when we have unconfessed sin in our lives. That was a part of God hanging on the cross. As we believe Jesus is fully man and fully God, it was that human part of Him that was feeling the anguish, that you and I feel when we let sin creep into our lives. Praise be to God, that love he proclaimed before the foundation of the earth was true.

Romans 10:9-11 “because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. For the Scriptures says “Everyone who believes in Him will not be put to shame.”

Romans 10:13 “For everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.”

Have you called upon the name of the Lord?

If you have questions or just need to talk with someone, we have an excellent staff and many committed Christians ready to talk with you.
