Reflections

Pastor Caleb Hughes

How Marvelous? How Wonderful?

The evolution of the English language is peculiar. Words can mean one thing, then years later can take on a new meaning entirely. Often times, it is in the form of slang. “Smooth” can define a texture or it can be used to describe a vehicle you think looks nice! For a long time “lit” has been used to mean something is aflame or to abbreviate “literature”, but today young people use “lit” to describe an excited or favorable set of circumstances.

Even apart from slang words, meanings just shift. An especially strange shift is that the word “awful” once meant full of awe, but is now a synonym for “terrible”. A peculiar language indeed!

Enter the words “marvelous” and “wonderful”. We sing and read these words that describe the love and power of our God, but so often we limit them to just mean “very good”, like we would describe a tasty dessert (wonderful).

At its core, God’s love is marvelous and wonderful, not only because it is “very good” but because God’s love elicits responses of marveling and being struck with wonder. As you consider the cross and empty tomb today, as you evaluate God’s love for you in your daily life, take on the true meanings of the words: how marvelous, how wonderful?

We ask that you follow these guidelines to help prevent the spread of infection (related to the COVID-19 virus) while in attendance of worship.

We ask that you wear a mask at all times in the building/worship area.

Use hand sanitizer upon entering and exiting the building.

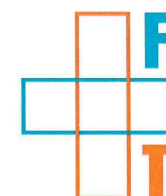

The ushers will sit families together separating them 6 feet from other families.

We ask that you NOT shake hands or come into close contact with others outside your immediate family.

Wash your hands with soap and water for 20 seconds after using the restroom.

Once the worship area is at 50% capacity, we will seat families in the greeting room or dining area to view the service on TV.

Thank you for helping us keep everyone as safe as possible during these times. We pray things are back to normal soon.
God Bless
