Reflections

Pastor Caleb Hughes

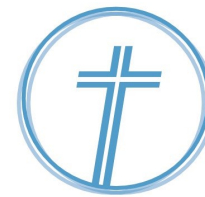

“A Thrill of Hope”

“O Holy Night” is by far my favorite Christmas song (also special love for “Baby It’s Cold Outside”). I love the song because I think Jesus would love it too. Long lay the world, in sin and error pining; ‘Til He appeared and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices.

Weary world? You better believe it. The image below is the anthem of December in my heart. Weary, wrapped in the schemes of Satan and in the entrapments of my sin. Like Eve, all of her descendants know what pining (suffering) in sin feels like. All except One. He knows pining, but not for His own sin. His pining was for yours...for ours.

In the Illustration, examine the hands and faces of both of the women. Mary knows the child within will liberate Eve’s children from the punishment looming for millennia. Mary knows the One who will put to death the weariness, the error, the pining—just look at her feet!

This December, cling not to the consumer-driven agenda force fed to you at every turn. Cling not to the message of the world that deems your value as tied to how much family surrounds you this Christmas. Cling instead to the thrill of hope, the source of our rejoicing, the object of that glorious morn.
